wife — But I'll miss you so when the time comes to go, Such pal — With no tie of blood, it needs no ho - ly word, The pals as we two have been — But if ev - er you're lone-ly, I friend-ship we two have shared — All the past would be lone-ly, but ask one thing on - ly, Come back to our Pal days a - gain. — for one thing on - ly, I knew there was some-one who cared. —

Chorus

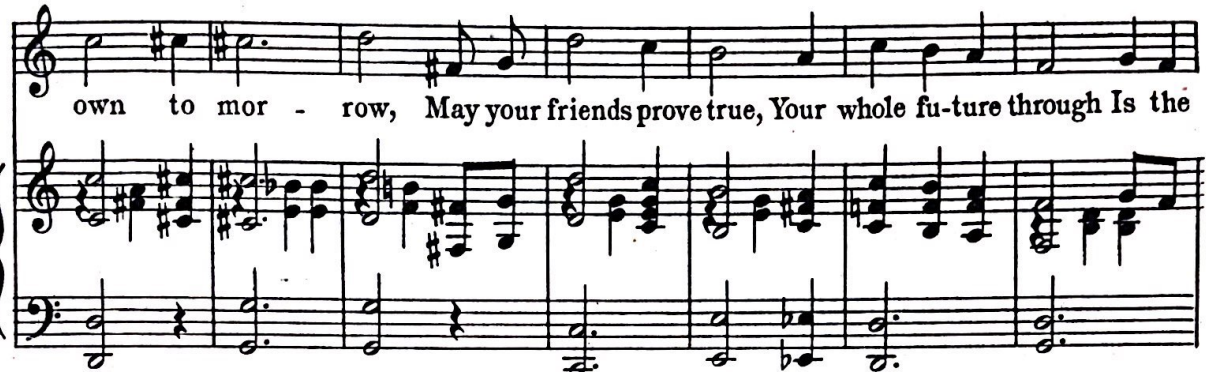

For we've pal'd for years and shared all our fears, Di - vid - ed each joy and sor - row Now there comes a day, when each goes his way, And each has his own to mor - row, May your friends prove true, Your whole fu-ture through Is the wish of your pal of the past — But what ev-er be - fall, I will come at your call, Pals first will be pals to the last. — For we've last. —
